

News Release

21 April 2009

Trust welcomes new Non-executive Director

Dorset County Hospital NHS Foundation Trust is pleased to welcome a new Non-executive Director to its Board.

Tracey Peters was a Director with Hall and Woodhouse Brewery Group in Blandford, responsible for human resources and the tenanted estate. She has also been a non-executive director for the National Probation Service and Signpost Housing Group.

Mrs Peters has an MSc in HR Development and a Postgraduate Diploma in Personnel Management. She is a member of the Chartered Institute of Personnel and Development.

She said: "I am very excited to be joining the Trust at a time when health services are undergoing a period of transformation and our ability to serve our community is gaining ever more importance."

The Trust's Chairman Robin SeQueira said he was delighted to welcome Mrs Peters to the Board.

He added: "Tracey brings considerable HR and business experience to the Board and will help it address the many challenges we envisage in the years to come."

ENDS

For more information about this news release please contact Communications Manager Susie Palmer on 01305 254683 or susie.palmer@dchft.nhs.uk