Dorset County Hospital to host Annual General Meeting and Annual Members' Meeting

Dorset County Hospital is offering people a chance to find out more about how to protect themselves and their families and stay well through the winter ahead.

This year's Annual General Meeting and Annual Members' Meeting on 16 September 2019 will include talks and advice from the hospital's Associate Medical Director, Christian Verrinder and Consultant Paediatrician Clare Hollingsworth about keeping well in the colder months.

There will also be the opportunity to hear about the many volunteer roles at the hospital from Volunteer Coordinator Hannah Robinson, who is expanding the valued volunteer programme at the Trust.

The Trust's Chairman Mark Addison, Chief Executive Patricia Miller and fellow Directors will also be giving overviews of the past year, 2018/19.

There will be the opportunity for questions at the end of the meeting with the hospital's senior team available to discuss key issues facing the NHS.

The meeting will be held from 5.30pm to 7.30pm in Room 2 of the hospital's Education Centre, which can be accessed from the East Wing Entrance 1.

Doors will open at 5pm and refreshments will be available, as well as information stands on the hospital's charity, volunteering, governors and plans for the development of the hospital site.

The Trust's full Annual Report and Accounts can be read online at www.dchft.nhs.uk and a summary Annual Review document will be available at the meeting.
